A Bibliography of Articles Published in Bodhi: An Interdisciplinary Journal

Smriti Dhungana

This article is a bibliographic review, analysis, interpretation and discussion of Bodhi: An Interdisciplinary Journal, published by Kathmandu University (KU) from 2007 to 2023. During its 16-year journey, Bodhi, over nine issues, published 119 articles by scholars and researchers from various disciplines, particularly Humanities and Social Sciences.

Keywords: Bibliography, Bodhi journal, Kathmandu University, bibliographic review

Bibliography

Dahal, Sudarshan Prasad. (2019). Media autonomy in cross-road

Karim, Mohammad Rezaul. (2023). The Role of Bengali women in the 1971 non-Cooperation movement against the Sharma, Laxmi. (2023). Secondary level teacher's professional development through research and development project.

*Bodhi: An Interdiciplinary Journal, 9(9), 136-158.

Sharma, Mahesh. (2013). The liminality of contemporary culture.
*Bodhi: An Interdiciplinary Journal, 6(6), 109-119.

*Bodhi: An Interdiciplinary Journal, 7(7), 105-126.

*Bodhi: An Interdiciplinary Journal, 8(8), 17-36.

_Smriti Dhungana is a PhD candidate at the Department of Languages and Mass Communication, School of Arts, Kathmandu University._