

Editorial Notes

We are happy to present Volume 10 to our dear readers. It has been a hard struggle to reach this stage. Many people have contributed in many different aspects in editorial processes. We would like to express our heartfelt thanks to all people who helped us. This time we are able to bring on board three international advisory board members: Gregory Markarinec, Nils Anfinset, and Prem Bhandari. Their valuable presence in our journal certainly helps building trust, wider visibility and commitment for quality editing and publication. In Volume 10 we have got several reviewers, without their rigorous work we would not be able to bring journal in this form. We would like to express our heartfelt thanks and sincere gratitude to all valuable reviewers as following: Gregory Markarinec, Prem Bhandari, Chitra Bahadur Budathoki, Bam Dev Subedi, Madhusudan Subedi, Man Bahadur Khattri, Rishi Kesh Pandey, Sagar Mani Neupane, Binod Pokhrel, Jagan Nath Adhikari, Mina Uprety and Pranab Kharel. Reviewers' work and support has always encouraged us to go further. Similarly, we would like to express sincere thanks to Pradeep Acharya for his time and hard work for proof reading most of the papers in this volume. In the context of publication of Volume 10, we have been fortunate to have Prof. Madhusudan Subedi as an author for every volume. Therefore, we would like to express our heartfelt thanks to his deep commitment towards continuity of this journal.

At the same time we have had an opportunity to receive training from Sioux Cumming, and Srikant Sarangi regarding editorial process and journal publication. In this context, we would like to thank INASP, UK, TU, Central Library and MAGAART, Tribhuvan University. Finally, we would like to thanks Social Science Baha for the opportunity for Mr. Man Bahadur Khattri (Editor-in-Chief) to participate in a panel discussion on "Academic Journal Publishing in and about Nepal: Some Reflections," during the Annual Conference on Nepal and the Himalaya, 2016.
