

Editorial Notes

We are happy to publish Volume III of Dhaulagiri Journal of Sociology and Anthropology (DJSA). We express our happiness for lot of attention and respect paid to bring the journal in this stage. We were able to conduct a workshop funded by International Network for the Availability of Scientific Publication (INASP), UK. This workshop was a corner stone to highlight our journal nationally as well as internationally. We would like to extend our heartfelt thank to INASP and especially to Julie Walker and Sioux Cumming for their special contribution to this regards.

We would like to thank those who participated on the workshop made valuable contribution. We were able to organize a seminar funded by University Grants Commission (UGC), Nepal and to all resource persons who came and contributed, among them special contribution came from Professor Chaitanya Mishra by accepting as Chief Guest for opening ceremony and Prof. Nav Raj Kanel, Dean of Humanities and Social Sciences, Tribhuvan University, as Chief Guest for Closing Ceremony. We would like to thank Professor Ram Bahadur Chhetri for his valuable suggestions and comments during public opening ceremony of Dhaulagiri Journal of Sociology and Anthropology Volume II. We have good news that our journal has been enlisted on Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ). Ebscohost, USA is also interested to enlist our journal and within short time we will get some good news.

We would like to offer vote of thanks to Mr. Tika Ram Gautam, former Head of Department, who transferred to Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology for his valuable contribution to this journal from initiation. His immemorial contribution lies as an editor as well as an author. Now, we are facing more responsibilities and challenges at the department. We are suffering of being few faculties at the department and we have many challenges to meet. Similarly, we would like congratulate to Mr. Man Bahadur Khattri, the Editor-in-Chief of this journal for being appointed as Head of Department.

Editors continue mission of journal to incorporate articles from different parts of the world and encourage young and enthusiastic scholars to submit their research work for publication in this journal. This mission has been partly successful due to help and co-ordination from our best wishers. We are committed to publish quality journal but still we are not satisfied ourselves. We are always desperate with lacking time and resources. We also faced some problems because of our contact email address was hacked by cyber criminal. We expect our readers provide us concrete and best suggestions to improve quality of the journal and we always appreciate highly trained research scholars be our authors.
