Guidelines for Paper Submission

The manuscripts submitted to The Journal of Nepalese Business Studies must be the original work not previously published and not being considered elsewhere for publication. The accepted paper for publication will not be published anywhere without the permission of the Editorial Board. The submitted paper will undergo a double-blind review process and are then subject to approval by the Editorial Board.

However, the ideas and opinions expressed in the papers published in the Journal of Nepalese Business Studies will be held responsible by the respective authors and in no way represent views and policies of the Faculty of Management and the Editorial Board. Authors submitting a paper should comply with the following guidelines:

1. Submitted manuscripts should be written in English.
2. All submissions should be a single Microsoft Word file, with tables and figures (graphs) embedded there. Tables and figures must have captions and should be numbered with Arabic numerals. If tables or figures are not compatible with the portrait orientation in the text and need to develop in the landscape orientation, place such landscape-oriented tables or figures on separate pages at the end of the paper. Authors must obtain permission from the original source owners for any materials they include in their articles.
3. A manuscript must have a minimum of 4,000 words, but should not exceed 7,000 with single line space in 44 size paper and written in Times New Roman 12 point font size.
4. Papers should be consistent in style throughout. especially if different authors have contributed sections. All submissions are expected to contain scholarly citations, including layout formats of APA (7th edition) style. The following components should be included in all papers to be submitted for publication:
  - Title
  - Author's information (name, position, affiliation, address, contact number, email address; corresponding author's name if the article is co-authored)
  - Abstract (not more than 250 words)
  - Keywords (not more than five words or phrases)
  - Main headings (sub-headings are optional; include an introduction, body with several headings, and conclusion)
  - Acknowledgements (if any)
  - References
  - Appendices (Questionnaires, Main data, analysis etc should be included, if any)
5. All submissions must include a cover page that bears the title of the article, the author's name and affiliation, and an abstract with keywords. The name of the author should not appear in any part of the text.

6. All submissions will be anonymously reviewed by peers to determine whether the articles meet the required criteria.
7. When an author reproduces the idea of another person and pretends it is his/her own, that is considered plagiarism. When something is copied without permission, it is considered copyright infringement. We do not accept copyright infringement and plagiarism. The respective authors should take all ethical responsibilities including plagiarism and copyright infringement for the submitted and published articles. If submitted articles are found plagiarized, they will directly be rejected without review. The authors must also agree on the terms and conditions of the copyright authorization of the articles to the journal while submitting the final version of the articles.
8. Authors are required to disclose conflict of interest if they have any.
9. Submissions that deviate from the above guidelines will be rejected without review and returned to the respective author/s.
10. For any dispute regarding the selection of the manuscript for publication, editorial board will be final. Authors should e-mail their manuscripts to:
