Editorial

It is with immense pride that the Research Management Committee (RMC) of Tikapur Multiple Campus presents the Journal of Tikapur Multiple Campus, Vol. 9, 2026 to its esteemed readership. This edition underscores our steadfast commitment to advancing academic excellence, fostering research, and enhancing professional knowledge and skills. Through a rigorous process of double-blind peer review, intensive editing, and meticulous copyediting by a team of dedicated scholars, this volume showcases high-quality research and scholarly contributions. We believe such initiatives are pivotal in cultivating a robust research culture among teaching professionals and scholars, inspiring them to engage in meaningful academic inquiry and dissemination. We extend our gratitude to all contributors, reviewers, and readers for their support and hope this volume serves as a catalyst for further intellectual exploration and innovation.

For this volume, a total of 32 articles were received, of which eight were rejected during the initial screening for failing to meet submission guidelines. The remaining 24 articles underwent a rigorous double-blind peer review process, resulting in the rejection of 2 articles due to quality or relevance concerns and 3 were not submitted in time. Ultimately, 19 articles were selected for publication, reflecting the high standards upheld by the journal. The corpus comprises nineteen articles including English Language Teaching (ELT), agriculture, economics, sociology, and health education. The authors exhibit heterogeneous institutional affiliations and academic ranks, encompassing PhD scholars, PhD holders, freelance researchers, and associate professors affiliated with various universities. This diversity in professional and scholarly backgrounds underscores the multidisciplinary and multilingual nature of the collected works.

We extend our sincere gratitude to Far Western University, Kanchanpur, and the University Grants Commission, Sanathimi Bhaktapur, for their generous support in fostering the growth of Tikapur Multiple Campus and facilitating the publication of this journal. We are deeply indebted to Tikapur Multiple Campus for prioritizing this scholarly endeavor and providing essential financial support. Our heartfelt thanks go to Associate Professor Dhavindra Rawal, Campus Chief, Tikapur Multiple Campus; Dr. Bishnu Bilash Adhikari, Dean of the Faculty of Agriculture at Far Western University. We extend special appreciation to Associate Professor Tilak Dev Giri, Member Secretary of the Research Management Committee at Tikapur Multiple Campus, for his exceptional coordination and unwavering support. We are profoundly grateful to the contributing scholars for providing their valuable articles for dissemination through this platform and acknowledge the esteemed reviewers, both from home and abroad, for their critical insights, rigorous evaluations, constructive feedback, and timely responses. Special thanks are also due to the editors and copy editors for their unwavering dedication and exceptional efforts in shaping this issue into its final form. Their contributions have been invaluable in ensuring the quality and coherence of the published work. Lastly, we express our sincere appreciation to Mr. Prithvi Dhungana for his timely and aesthetically pleasing layout design and staff of Shubhalaxmi offset Press, Tikapur, for ensuring the successful publication of this journal. We have left no stone unturned to bring the issue errorless. However, the chances of human error cannot be denied. We will heartily appreciate and welcome comments and suggestions for the improvements in the next issue from the valued readers.
