

Editorial

This issue of medical journal MJSBH Vol.-IV of Shree Birendra Hospital has been published just after the sad Royal tragedy.

Our hospital has experienced very sad moment in our national history. But in spite of all the happenings, once again we have come out with the annual publication of medical journal MJSBH- Vol. IV, on 76th anniversary of Shree Birendra Hospital.

Within a short period we have tried to collect as much scientific medical articles as possible and, its regular publication would certainly achieve its goal of communicating recent medical advancement among medical professionals within and outside the hospital.

We are proud to publish some of the articles of Society of Ex. Doctors and Medical Technical Officers of Royal Nepalese Army.

I wish to thank all contributors who helped to publish this issue of Medical Journal of Shree Birendra Hospital Vol. IV.

With Best Wishes.
