

Editorial

It is with immense pride and pleasure that the editorial team of GMMC presents the thirteenth edition of the annual research publication, “GMMC Journal of Interdisciplinary Studies”. This milestone marks the culmination of dedicated efforts from the Research Management Cell of GMMC, which has consistently upheld a tradition of academic excellence and scholarly contributions for over thirteen years. Continuing its legacy, this journal serves as a testament to our unwavering commitment to fostering a research-oriented culture among our faculty and contributors. Each of the 11 research articles included in this volume embodies the highest standards of academic rigor, adhering to international norms and cutting-edge methodologies. The articles are drawn from a wide array of disciplines, including management, literature, pedagogy, culture, and philosophy, ensuring the journal stays true to its interdisciplinary mission.

As an academic institution, GMMC remains steadfast in its pursuit of knowledge creation and dissemination. This publication not only provides a platform for researchers to share their work but also inspires our faculty and scholars to keep exploring, questioning, and contributing to the expanding horizons of knowledge. By facilitating research and publication, GMMC emphasizes its role as a dynamic institution where learning transcends traditional boundaries, encouraging educators and researchers to venture beyond fixed curricula and established frameworks.

In this thirteenth volume, the diversity and depth of the included research reflect our contributors' relentless curiosity and academic integrity. These works aim to bridge theoretical understanding with practical applications, offering insights that enrich the academic community and benefit society at large. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all contributors, whose scholarly works form the backbone of this journal. Our sincere thanks also go to the Campus Administration, Peer Review Team, Campus Management Committee, Gupteshwor Mahadev Cave Management Committee, and all stakeholders for their unwavering support and collaboration. It is through their collective efforts that this journal continues to thrive as a beacon of academic achievement.

As we release this edition on the eve of December 31, 2024, we look forward to sustaining this tradition of excellence and anticipate even more impactful contributions in the years to come.
