The 'Journal of Aadikavi' is a regular (yearly) publication of Research Management Cell (RMC) of Aadikavi Bhanubhakta Campus, Tanahun. We are delighted to present its regular issue, Volume 12, Number 1, 2023. This academic journal is dedicated to readers, academicians, educational policymakers, planners, researchers, and all individuals connected to the featured articles. The articles undergo blind peer reviews by experts in relevant fields. Journals are not just about publishing articles; they serve to spread new knowledge across various domains, encouraging people to engage in research and share their findings. This interdisciplinary journal encompasses writings from diverse disciplines, featuring research and knowledge-based articles from Aadikavi Bhanubhakta Campus faculties and welcoming contributions from other institutions that contribute to societal and academic knowledge.

This platform aims to provide researchers with an avenue to publish their research reports and enhance their professionalism. Writing academically and publishing is a significant strategy for professional development. The Research Management Cell at Aadikavi Bhanubhakta Campus extends gratitude to the authors who contributed valuable articles to the journal. We highly value the insights, contributions, and time given by the experts, reviewers, and editors of the articles who provided constructive and necessary feedback to the concerned articles and helped to bring this journal in this form. We believe that the articles in this volume will prove valuable and insightful for new researchers aspiring to conduct and publish research.

At last but not the least, we express our thanks to the campus management committee, academic council, administration, department heads, subject committees, cells, faculties, staff, and students for their support and guidance in bringing forth this issue. Once again, special thanks go to our authors for their contributions and the reviewers who diligently reviewed the articles, supporting the Editorial Team throughout the publication process of the journal.
