Editorial

We are pleased to present Volume 13, Number 1 (2024) of the Journal of Aadikavi, the annual publication of the Research Management Cell (RMC) at Aadikavi Bhanubhakta Campus, Tanahun. This journal serves as a dynamic platform for academicians, researchers, policymakers, and all engaged in scholarly pursuits. Each article has undergone a rigorous blind peer-review by experts, ensuring academic quality and integrity. More than a collection of papers, this journal fosters interdisciplinary dialogue and encourages the dissemination of new knowledge across diverse fields.

We feature contributions from our campus faculty and scholars from other institutions, promoting collaborative academic exchange. Publishing is a vital part of professional growth, and we thank our authors for their valuable insights. We also extend sincere gratitude to our reviewers and editors for their constructive feedback and dedication. Their efforts have been instrumental in shaping this volume.

Finally, we acknowledge the support of the Campus Management Committee, Academic Council, Administration, Department Heads, Subject Committees, faculties, staff, and students. Your collective contributions made this publication possible. To our authors and reviewers thank you once again. We hope this volume inspires emerging researchers and enriches the academic community.
