

Editorial Note
Pragya Darshan
Volume 6, Issue 2

2025-05-09

We are delighted to present Volume 7, Issue 1 of Pragya Darshan, continuing our commitment to academic excellence and scholarly communication. With great pride, we announce that this and all future issues are now officially available online through NepJOL (Nepal Journals Online), expanding our accessibility and academic reach.

As we progress into the digital domain, our foremost priority is to enhance the quality of publications in this multidisciplinary journal. We invite researchers, scholars, and professionals from diverse fields including Science, Technology, Medicine, Agriculture, Engineering, Humanities, Social Sciences, and Management to contribute high-quality manuscripts that adhere to the journal's guidelines.

All submitted articles undergo a rigorous double-blind peer review process to ensure scholarly integrity and research excellence. From this issue onward, each article will be assigned a Digital Object Identifier (DOI) to facilitate broader citation and global recognition.

We extend our sincere gratitude to all authors, reviewers, editorial members, and production staff whose dedication and collaboration made this issue possible. Your continued support is the cornerstone of our growth and academic impact.

We look forward to receiving your valuable research contributions as we collectively strive to uphold the standards of knowledge dissemination.

Warm regards,

On behalf of the Editorial Team
Prof. Dr. Chet Raj Bhatta
