Dear Readers,

It is with great pleasure and enthusiasm that we welcome you to the Campus Journal 2025! This year's edition reflects the dynamic spirit, intellectual curiosity, and creative thoughts of our faculties. As we navigate the ever-changing landscape of education and innovation, our journal remains a testament to the voices, experiences, and aspirations that shape our academic journey.

Education is the process of acquiring knowledge and developing critical thinking, skills, and analysis. In this issue, we explore a broad spectrum of topics ranging from academic achievements and research to artistic expressions and thought-provoking opinion pieces. We try to capture the essence of our institution—a place where ideas flourish, diversity is celebrated, and faculties are empowered to make meaningful contributions to the academia for the enhancement of knowledge.

The Campus Journal 2025 is not just a collection of articles; it is a platform that amplifies diverse perspectives and showcases their dedication, creativity, and passion of our writers. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to our contributors, editorial team, faculty advisors, and everyone who has played an active role in bringing this journal to life. Your dedication and commitment have been instrumental in making this publication a success.

To our readers, I hope this journal informs, inspires, and sparks meaningful dialogue. May it serve as a reflection of our shared experiences and a beacon of encouragement for the future.

Happy reading!
